

Pre-Application Disclosure

for Individuals Considering Employment at Recovery Centers of Arkansas

Recovery Centers of Arkansas (RCA), when considering your application for employment, when making a decision whether to offer you employment, when deciding whether to continue your employment (if you are hired), and when making other employment related decisions directly affecting you, may wish to obtain and use a “consumer report” from a “consumer reporting agency”. These terms are defined in the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), which applies to you. As an applicant for employment or an employee of RCA, you are a “consumer” with rights under the FCRA.

A “consumer reporting agency” is a person or business that for monetary fees, dues, or on a cooperative non-profit basis, regularly assembles or evaluates consumer credit information on consumers for the purpose of furnishing “consumer reports” to others, such as RCA.

A “consumer report” is any written, oral or other communication of any information by a “consumer reporting agency” bearing on a consumer’s character, general reputation, personal characteristics or mode of living which is used or collected for the purpose of serving as a factor in establishing the consumer’s eligibility for employment purposes. For RCA’s purposes, a consumer report will consist of public and private sources about workers’ compensation injuries, driving record, court record, history report, education, credentials, credit and references, criminal background check and civil litigation records check, and may include employment verification, reference checking and educational verification.

If RCA obtains a “consumer report” about you and if RCA considers any information in the “consumer report” when making an employment related decision that directly and adversely affects you, you will be notified before the decision is finalized and you will be provided with a copy of the “consumer report”. You may also contact the Federal Trade Commission about your rights under the FCRA as a “consumer” with regard to “consumer reports” and “consumer reporting agencies.”

RCA as a Drug-Free Workplace

RCA applicants for employment must pass a pre-employment drug screen. Subsequently, employees may be administered a drug screen and/or breathalyzer test for cause (when there is a report from any source of drug/alcohol use or when there is reasonable behavioral evidence that the person is under the influence of alcohol or other mood-altering drugs) or randomly. Failure to pass a drug screen or any level of alcohol registering on a breathalyzer may result in immediate termination of employment without further notice. Refusal to consent to such testing will result in immediate termination of employment without further notice.
